A role play: An accident

1. Work in groups of four.
2. Look at the photo and imagine this accident just happened.
   The driver of the black car was badly injured[1]. An ambulance is already taking this driver to the hospital.
3. Take a role card and prepare for a role play.
4. Practise the role play and present it in class.

Partner A
- You are the driver of the silver car.
- Explain how the accident happened.
- Explain where you were going.
- You were going too fast, but you don't want to admit[2] it.
- You are very sorry that the other driver is injured[1].

Partner B
- You are a police officer.
- Ask questions and find out what exactly happened. Who is responsible for the accident?
- Talk to the driver and the witnesses. Take notes and write down their details (name, address etc.).
- Take photos of the scene.

Partner C
- You are a witness.
- You were inside an office on the other side of the street. You heard a loud crash[3] when the accident happened and looked out of the window.
- You immediately[4] called an ambulance because the driver of the black car was badly injured[1].

Partner D
- You are a witness.
- You were walking on the side of the road and saw the accident happen.
- You think the driver of the silver car was going too fast. You think he/she is responsible for the accident.

[1] injured – verletzt; [2] to admit sth – etw zugeben; [3] crash – Zusammenstoß, Krach; [4] immediately – sofort, gleich
